

I object to the Broadcast Flag Mandate, as it is an intrusion into the use of personal software on personal computers, and would make a felony the use of such software on a personal computer for my own personal use. The federal government should not intrude into what I can do on my computer using my software - this sets a dangerous precedent.

Thank you.

Tim Ake